

A spiritual conversation doesn't always have to end in sharing the gospel. It can even simply be a chance to meaningfully connect with a friend and share something about your faith.

SPIRITUAL CONVO GUIDE

IDEAS TO SPARK CONVOS:

- Ask a friend how they are doing and if appropriate, offer prayer.
- If a friend is anxious about COVID, APs, graduations & beyond, share how the gospel gives you peace in the midst of uncertainty.
- Do a favorite song exchange & share what you like about it
- Ask what they did over the weekend and tell them about yours.
- Invite a friend to Element
- Share throwback photos & why a certain photo was meaningful for you (i.e. serving in Cambodia)
- Post your favorite verse/song/book on social media as a way to spark conversation
- Share a thought-provoking video & see what they think
- Write a letter to a friend and include an encouraging verse
- Give them a little treat w/ verse art attached
- As you talk to your friend, ask a question to spark dialogue about deeper things (see below)

CONVO STARTER Q'S...

- Tell me 3 things that happened last week that you're thankful for.
- What motivates you each day?
- Who or what has changed your life the most?
- What have you found to be the best way to deal with disappointment?
- What is the most hopeful thing in your life?
- Do you have much of a spiritual background?
- If there is a God, what is one question you would ask him?
